FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE: SUSPENSION OF INDUSTRIAL ACTION BY JUSAG AND SSAJUG

The Judicial Service of Ghana wishes to inform the Honourable Justices, Judges, Magistrates, staff of the Service, the legal fraternity, and the general public that the industrial action previously initiated by the Judicial Service Staff Association of Ghana (JUSAG) and the Senior Staff Association of the Judicial Service of Ghana (SSAJUG) has been suspended.

Following productive discussions between the leadership of the Associations and the Management of the Judicial Service, a mutual understanding has been reached. Consequently, all staff are expected to resume their duties with immediate effect. We are pleased to announce that all courts across the country will resume normal sittings effective tomorrow, Tuesday, 10th November, 2026.

The Judicial Service deeply regrets the disruption to the administration of justice caused by this industrial action. We offer our most sincere apologies to His Excellency the President and the Executive arm of Government, the Honourable Speaker and Members of Parliament, the legal profession, and, most importantly, the general public and all court users, for the undue inconvenience experienced during this period. We acknowledge the key functions the courts play in the life of our nation and the frustration that any interruption to this service inevitably entails.

The Service continues to prioritise the seamless and expeditious delivery of justice for all.

We thank all stakeholders for their patience and understanding as we work towards a sustainable resolution of the matters raised.
